

TFS seeks upper school math teacher

Tallulah Falls School seeks a student-centered, energetic and inventive upper school math teacher with the ability to instruct highly motivated students in a rigorous course of study at the college-preparatory level, honors level and advanced level.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Ideal candidate will possess a minimum of a master's degree with teaching experience and a Georgia teaching certificate or equivalent
- Special consideration given to candidates having taught in a college setting

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provide an engaging environment conducive to facilitating a positive learning experience for all students
- Provide a superior level of instruction for students on a daily basis
- Maintain a high degree of ethical professionalism
- Exhibit superior classroom management skills
- Maintain thorough records and plans
- Incorporate the use of technology in the classroom
- Adhere to and enforce all school policies
- Seek improvement through professional development
- Have a calling to work with young people
- Evaluate each student's growth in knowledge and skills in the course being taught
- Communicate with parents and school counselors on student progress

Tallulah Falls School seeks a candidate that desires to be a part of a special team to capture hearts, elevate character and intellect, and prepare our students to thrive in life. Preferred candidates will contribute to the academic and extracurricular life of the school through a willingness to coach and/or be a part of the school's Outdoor Education Program.

Our students, faculty, staff, parents, and supporters form a close-knit school family where everyone feels a sense of belonging and purpose. We all work together as a team to accomplish a common mission. Salary is commensurate with education and experience. Those fortunate enough to influence young lives at TFS receive a competitive benefits package.

INTERESTED CANDIDATES

Qualified candidates interested in applying for this position should email a formal letter of introduction with an attached resume to Upper School Academic Dean Kim Popham at kim.popham@tallulahfalls.org.
